

The Association of Muslim American Lawyers (AMAL) & DinarStandard™

present a forum on

OPPORTUNITIES IN ISLAMIC PRIVATE EQUITY

Private equity is growing in popularity in the Persian Gulf states as increased liquidity in the market is attracting some of the largest private equity firms in the world. As private equity has grown, so have Islamic alternatives to it. Please join us at this unique professional learning and networking forum to get an overview of the drivers behind this trend as well as its future prospects.

Panelists: Tariq Al-Rifai, Vice President, UIB Capital, Inc

Umar Moghul, *Associate, Murtha Cullina LLP,
AMAL Board member*

Aamir Rehman, *Former Global Head of Strategy,
HSBC Amanah, Author: Dubai & Co.: Global
Strategies for Doing Business in the Gulf States*

Rafi-uddin Shikoh, *Editor/ Founder,
DinarStandard.com*

When: Tuesday, Nov 13th, 2007

Where: New York University,
Stern School of Business, Room UC-52

Time: 6:30pm-930pm

Fee: $20 per person (at the door)
Light snacks will be served.

RSVP: info@theamal.org
(Limited space - 80)

Supported By: Islamic Finance Forum NYU,
Islamic Center of NYU

About DinarStandard™
(<http://www.dinarstandard.com>)

DinarStandard™ provides actionable business strategy insights and resources for businesses engaged with economies of the Muslim world. Its DS100™ ranking has been covered by The Economist, Arab News, Malaysian Star and many other prominent media outlets. Topics covered include innovation, marketing, finance, current challenges, Islamic business model, Muslim Lifestyle Market (tm) and management.

About AMAL
(<http://www.theamal.org>)

The Association of Muslim American Lawyers (AMAL) seeks to: assist the Muslim-American community's exercise of legal rights through education; encourage entry into the legal profession; assist members in their professional development; promote the administration of justice; benefit the community with legal resources and services; identify and explore themes common to American and Islamic jurisprudence; and promote the highest standards of professionalism, integrity and honor amongst AMAL members..